

SYDNEY/SYDNEY EYE HOSPITAL

HAND NURSING MANAGEMENT

VENUE

Worrall Lecture Theatre, Level 1
Worrall Building, Sydney/Sydney Eye
Hospital
8 CPD Hours

DATES

12th November 2020

Registration from 0800
Course Commences: 0815 – 1630

COST

$190 (GST inclusive)
Morning Tea and Lunch Provided

We are unable to cater for specific dietary requirements

COURSE DESIGN AND AIM

This seminar is designed for Registered and Enrolled Nurses (ward based and new to operating theatres) who are interested in improving their knowledge, skills acquisition and application of these in the management of patients with hand injuries and conditions.

The seminar will comprise of a combination of lectures and practical workshops, conducted by senior clinicians working at Sydney Hospital Hand Unit, which will provide participants with opportunities to develop their clinical knowledge and application to practice.

SEMINAR TOPICS

- Hand Anatomy
- Overview of common hand injuries & surgeries
- Anaesthesia & pain management strategies
- Wound management principles
- Bone fixation
- Post-operative patient management
- Hand Therapy treatments

ENQUIRIES AND BOOKINGS

For Further information and course registration forms please contact:

Kay Maddison

Hand & Wound CNC

Nursing Education, Research & Leadership Unit (NERLU)

Sydney/Sydney Eye Hospital

Phone: 9382 7574

Email: Kay.Maddison@health.nsw.gov.au